

First Report :

Code worked on by:

Jonathan Dao

Mahmoud Khafagy

Richard Stanley

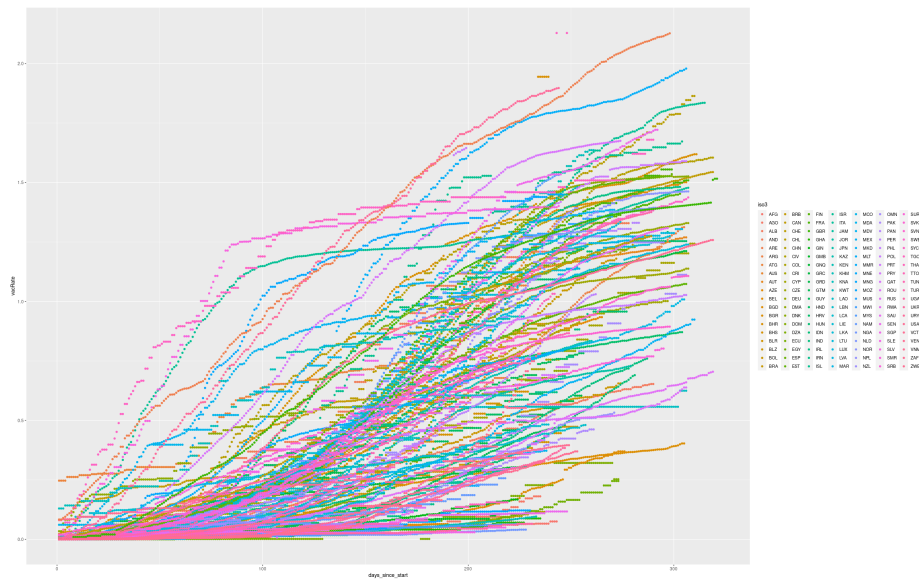

Figure 1: our first graph

This graph currently shows the vaccination rate of covid-19 based on different countries since the first day in which the country started the vaccine. Currently, we are not tracking gross domestic product in this graph, although we believe that once we have created some models we might see some interesting relationships between the rate at which the public has been vaccinated give the GDP of that country.